Hilo Sagrado

Hilo Sagrado

Home Collection by Ximena Rozo Design™

Hilo Sagrado Home Collection by Ximena Rozo Design™ brings contemporary, intelligent and lasting solutions to interior décor. The brand aesthetics boasts eye-catching colors and nuanced textures which are thoughtfully realized in unconventional forms, and ultimately fuses traditional artisan techniques with innovative design to create quality lifestyle products for the home.

Ximena`s designs have been showcased in the U.S, Colombia, Italy, the Netherlands, France and Japan; and her work has been featured in several design magazines and spans a broad spectrum from contemporary hand-crafts to aeronautical design, including 15 U.S. patents in aircraft design for her work on the Boeing 787.

Hilo Sagrado is a social business driven by four fundamental pillars: women's empowerment, ethical trade, cultural heritage and sustainable development. Through design, training and innovation we work with artisans to develop top quality lifestyle products that reflect their deep-rooted culture and are aimed at the luxury global market.

We develop education, training programs and bring in experts to create long lasting impact. Hilo Sagrado works closely with different artisan communities throughout Colombia.

Products are carefully handmade, using traditional techniques that have been passed down for generations.

Hilo Sagrado is a Fellowship 500 Member of the Ethical Fashion Forum in London which brings together pioneers and innovators around the globe who promote ethical trade and sustainable fashion.

PILLOWS

Hand-woven in Bogota, Colombia by expert artisans our pillows are made of 100% alpaca from Peru. These exquisite soft fabrics are complemented by beautiful pompoms, tassels, belts, and intriguing braids crafted by the Wayuu, indigenous from La Guajira, Colombia. We used the rich cultural and creative heritage of indigenous Latin American communities as a means of fostering their economic and social development.
